MISSING PERSON ENDANGERED

On 12/24/04 at approximately 5:00 p.m. Connecticut State Police Troop-C received a complaint that a male was missing from his home and family members were concerned about his welfare. Troopers responded to the complaint and initiated an investigation. It was determined that the missing person was last seen in Mansfield. Troopers contacted family, friends, and neighbors to try and determine the last contact the missing person had with anyone. Troopers were informed that the missing man was in need of medical attention. All surrounding police agencies were advised of the physical description of the missing person and his vehicle, which has not been located.

The missing male is identified as:

CAVANAUGH, Robert DOB: 11/3/53

Foster Drive

Mansfield, Ct. He is a white male 5'10" tall bald shaved head blue eyes and possibly has a goatee.

He may be driving a 1996 Mazda Pick-up color black bearing Connecticut Registration 681CZT.

Anyone who may see this vehicle or knows anything regarding the whereabouts of the missing subject is asked to call State Police at 860-896-3200
